Saturday Market

MARKETPLACE • COMMUNITY • CELEBRATION

From Beth

The income of an artisan differs significantly throughout the year. In the summer, we are spending every moment creating and selling and trying to be artistic on cue. We are at a high level of social contact. We are packing and unpacking and driving here and there. The pressures of production and sheer lack of sleep can take their toll. So can the exhilaration at the acceptance of your work.

It is key to pace yourself throughout this time. Remember to eat right and drink water. Gift yourself the rest you deserve. Try, as well, to be good to one another. Your fellow members have also chosen this path of invention and design. A little patience can go a long way at this time of year.

Remember that you have chosen this life and that your artistry enhances not only the Market but the world itself.

Have a lovely Saturday,
~Beth
